

GARNER: A GREAT PLACE TO BE!

Superior quality of life in a growing community just minutes from downtown Raleigh

Garner, North Carolina—one of the Triangle’s All-America Cities—is an idyllic town of over 38,000 residents in the heart of Wake County, one of the most desirable places to live in the United States. But despite all of the growth, Garner has retained its hometown charm and strong sense of community.

Just minutes from downtown Raleigh, Garner residents have easy access to one of the nation’s premier metropolitan areas, yet they also enjoy the benefits of a community with competitively priced housing, outstanding parks and trails, and numerous cultural, educational and entertainment venues. Recent public and private investment in Garner’s historic downtown—including the Town’s $9 million recreation center—have made that district a growing hub of recreation, entertainment and entrepreneurialism.

White Deer Park and neighboring Lake Benson Park—located in the heart of Garner near numerous neighborhoods—have 160 acres of open space and several miles of paved and unpaved trails. White Deer Park’s LEED Gold-certified Nature Center offers educational programming year-round for kids and adults. And residents can enjoy boating, fishing and bird watching on scenic Lake Benson.

The Town’s Parks, Recreation and Cultural Resources Department provides an impressive array of special events and recreational programming for people of all ages. The department also manages the Garner Performing Arts Center, which brings nationally touring acts to town throughout the year. In addition, Garner’s Poole Family YMCA boasts a wide range of programming and amenities, including an outdoor aquatics center.

In Garner, you’re never far from fun, entertaining and enriching opportunities. And you have access to it all in a charming, affordable town that you’ll be thrilled to call home.
